

2004 ANNUAL REPORT

Economic Policy Institute

Overview:

The Economic Policy Institute is a non-governmental non-for-profit organization, founded on 12 May 1997.

Its mission is to encourage and support the implementation of free market experience and know-how that will influence Bulgaria's effective participation in the global economy and its membership in Euro-Atlantic structures.

EPI's primary tasks are:

- to bring experts together to explore issues and exchange views in order to generate innovative proposals for practical economic policy measures;
- to provoke public discussions on economic issues;
- to provide independent expert opinions and analyses;
- to inform and influence policy- and decision makers and the society;
- to encourage pro-active dialogue;
- to research economic issues and introduce best practices;
- to provide analysis of alternative approaches to economic issues.

Activities:

The main fields of activities for the EPI are:

- Advocacy work: advising Government and Parliament bodies;
- Analysis of alternative approaches to economic policies;
- Recommendations of policy changes aimed at encouraging economic growth;
- Training of politicians, policy-makers, corporate managers and private entrepreneurs;
- Research projects on economic issues.

REVUELING THE POTENTIAL OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES FOR ENSURING COMPETITIVENESS IN TOURISM SECTOR (2003-2004)

The project was implemented with the kind support of the German Marshal Fund of the United States within the framework of the "Support for Key Central and Eastern European Policy Institutions", Program on Transatlantic Policy.

1. Goals:

The project encouraged a broad discussion on the advantages and disadvantages, obstacles and favorable circumstances for implementing online strategies in the tourism sector and tries to outline some possible solutions.

The specific objectives were:

- identifying the major pitfalls in the specific segments and reveal the main opportunities;
- delivering US and other foreign expertise and transfer practical experience in the area by involving key researchers and practitioners;
- strengthening the existing internal relations between the two sectors and within each one separately;
- promoting the establishment of international corporate relations and develop existing ones in both sectors;
- providing practical advises for implementation of online strategies;
- establishing and utilizing new approaches and techniques in reaching common stand-points;
- elaborating a Policy Paper to support policy-making and decision-taking process.
